

QUALIFICATION CRITERIA

(Applicable for UCI Track Champions League 2024)

1. INTRODUCTION

UCI Track Champions League qualification criteria are designed to ensure the highest level of competition in track cycling.

The UCI Track Champions League is not a competition based on invitation. Athletes must comply with specific qualification criteria.

The primary method of qualification is based on athletes results at the highest ranked track competitions:

1. Paris 2024 Olympic Games (Q.Cat 1.1 & 2.1)

2. UCI Competitions (Q.Cat 1.1 & 2.1)

2023 UCI Track Champions League

2024 Tissot UCI Track World Championships

2024 Tissot UCI Track Nations Cup*

*If a UCI Track Nations Cup round winner has qualified via another event that place will be offered to the next rider via the roll down limited to that event podium.

3. Continental Championships (Q.Cat 1.2 & 2.2)

2024 UEC Track Elite European Championships (NEW)

2024 CAC Track African Championships (NEW)

2024 Pan American Track Championships (NEW)

2024 Oceania Track Championships (NEW)

2024 Track Asian Championships (NEW)

The secondary method is through wild card system. Wild card allocation is at the discretion of the organiser, however, to be eligible, athletes must comply with specific performance criteria (Q. Cat 3.1).

The wild card system has been designed to reward exceptional talents, high potential talent and promote diversity. The UCI Track Champions League features 72 athletes.
