▶ MAIN TOURISTIC ATTRACTIONS

Pražský hrad:

Prague Castle has been the seat of Czech princes and later kings since the 9th century, and since 1918 it has been the seat of the President of the Republic. Twice in history it became the main residence of the Holy Roman Emperor. According to the Guinness Book of Records, it is considered the largest ancient castle in the world - it covers an area of 570 m in length and 130 m in width. Part of the castle is a complex of historic buildings, which is dominated by the Cathedral of St. Vít, where the coronation jewels of Czech kings are stored. The entrance to Prague Castle is protected on all sides by a castle guard patrol.

► STADIUM RULES & REGULATIONS

This set of regulations applies to all areas of the Markéta Stadium (U Vojtěšky 11, 162 01, Prague), including fenced premises, designated entrances and exits, marked parking areas, race tracks, and any spaces related to the organization of the FIM Speedway Grand Prix event.

By entering the venue, every visitor agrees to comply with these rules for the entire duration of the event. In case of non-compliance, the event organizer reserves the right to deny entry or remove the individual from the venue without any refund of the admission fee. Visitors acknowledge that the venue may be monitored by a security camera system with recordings.

ENTRY & EXIT

Entry is allowed for individuals aged 12 and older. Visitors under 12 years old must be accompanied by a person aged 18 or older.

SECURITY CHECKS

All visitors must undergo a security check, including personal belongings such as bags or backpacks. Security staff may use metal detectors or other screening devices.

Visitors are strictly prohibited from bringing the following items into the stadium:

- Alcoholic beverages and any drugs or psychotropic substances
- Weapons - firearms, knives, sharp objects, stun guns, or any imitations and replicas
- Dangerous objects - including umbrellas, sticks, telescopic batons, laser pointers
- Glass containers, cans, bottles, mugs, or any breakable or sharp items
- Sprays, permanent markers, chemicals, or paint substances
- Pyrotechnics, torches, or flammable items
- Large items - such as folding chairs, prams, large umbrellas, sledges, skis, bicycles, etc.
- Animals - no pets allowed
- Items displaying racist, xenophobic, violent, vulgar, or offensive slogans (including flags or clothing)

BEHAVIOR INSIDE THE VENUE

- Entering restricted areas (e.g., the racetrack, safety zones)
- Damaging stadium equipment or infrastructure
- Writing on, sticking to, or painting on stadium buildings, signs, or paths
- Using unauthorized motor vehicles inside the venue
- Lighting fires, setting off fireworks, or using flares
- Urinating outside designated restrooms or polluting the venue in any way
- Climbing fences, barriers, camera stands, poles, floodlights, or rooftops
- Throwing objects or liquids onto the racetrack or into spectator areas

- Tampering with the racetrack, training corridors, or event structures
- Blocking advertising banners or stadium installations with flags or banners
- Wearing face masks or disguises to conceal identity
- Using unauthorized wireless devices (except for mobile phones)

COMMERCIAL ACTIVITY & MEDIA RECORDING

Any commercial activity within the venue requires written permission from the event organizer or stadium owner. Photography and video recording for commercial purposes are strictly prohibited without prior authorization.

ACCESSIBILITY FOR DISABLED VISITORS

Due to safety regulations, the number of designated seating areas for disabled visitors is limited.

COMPLIANCE WITH INSTRUCTIONS

All visitors must follow instructions given by stadium staff, security personnel, and emergency services, including Event organizers, Security services, City Police & National Police, Fire Brigade or Emergency

Medical Services

The organizer reserves the right to deny entry or remove visitors who are:

- Under the influence of alcohol or drugs
- Behaving aggressively
- Suspected of violent behavior

All visitors must also adhere to the laws of the Czech Republic, as well as general rules of decency and mutual respect. Any violations may result in immediate removal from the event without a refund.

LIABILITY & DAMAGES

Visitors must behave responsibly and avoid actions that could harm other attendees or property.

For safety reasons, all visitors must comply with instructions from organizers, police, firefighters, and security personnel.

The event organizer is not liable for personal injuries or property damage unless caused by a direct violation of legal regulations by the organizer.
